- (5) the researcher will be available to meet in person to answer questions and to provide a review of records with clients to ensure quality and understanding;
- (6) the researcher will compile the records on a flash drive, and or CD for the client to have permanent records of findings of facts and evidence;

Research Objective

The research objective and goals is to confirm Native American ancestry and to identify with evidence a tribe the client may belong to in connection with the research records and possible DNA Connections with other tribal members.

The core analysis approach to the research will start and conclude as follows;

1. Agreement for Research for the years 1790-1940 to research and compile the U.S. Census Records in the paternal bloodline confirmed by client;

2. Agreement for Research for the years 1913-present to research, study, and compile all the Vital Records in that certain bloodline to confirm your ancestry;

The researcher has already confirmed that the colonial court time period records would be needed for the complete analysis for the clients research to the same for a proper conclusion of evidence, but that research and narrative report will be conducted after the completion of this research which will require additional research time in a subsequent research agreement between the parties at the client's request for additional research and study into the matter.
